BEST IN BUSINESS

By Martyn Dolton

NOMINATIONS have opened for the Barking and Dagenham business awards 2011.

Firms, big and small, are being urged to enter the free awards which are designed to help promote some of the borough's best.

There are nine categories this year including best new business, growth business of the year; customer service; innovation; green business; business person of the year; supporting education, training or development; community involvement including social enterprise; and sole trader, micro-business or E-business.

Paul Bishop, business relationship manager from the borough's Regeneration and Economic Development team, believed the Barking and Dagenham Business Awards were an established part of the local business calendar.

He said: "As well as celebrating the success of our businesses, of all sizes, the event provides an excellent networking opportunity."

"I would especially like to thank all our sponsors this year, all of whom play an important part in the success of our local economy and without whom these awards would not be possible."

Entries can be submitted online at www.boldanddynamic.co.uk/awards.

Businesses in the borough will also receive a letter telling them how to enter the awards.

For help and advice with entries businesses can call Paul Bishop on 020 8724 8292 or e-mail paul.bishop@lbdd.gov.uk

The closing date is 5pm on Wednesday, May 11 and the awards ceremony and supper is at the Broadway Theatre on Tuesday, July 5.

Mystery solved

POLICE believe they have solved the mystery of red markings appearing on homes across Barking

A resident saw a man employed to deliver leaflets marking homes with a red pen. The witness confronted the suspect and took away his marker pen.

Police have traced the suspect who is believed to be delivering leaflets for a local company and are due to speak to him this week.

Olympic schedule

THE schedule for the Olympic Games has been released.

Bosses have announced the timetable one month before the ticket ballot opens to give residents time to plan for the games.

A full list of events and prices can be found at www.london2012.com

Parent forum

Win tickets to one of two fantastic shows at the O2

THEY Will Rock You and the Magic of Beatles will soon be appearing at indigO2 and we have five pairs of tickets to give away for each.

If you want to break free or looking for a kind of magic then why not see the spectacular They Will Rock You! show at indigO2 at the O2, Greenwich, on Friday, March 4?

The live concert show, which starts at 7.45pm and is joined by Terry Nash's world-acclaimed Meat Loaf show, is part of Queen's 40th Anniversary Tour and celebrates the music of Freddie Mercury and Queen.

The audience will journey back to times when Queen reigned supreme with 'Another One Bites the Dust', 'We are the Champions' and, of course, 'Bohemian Rhapsody', and Meat Loaf topped the charts with 'Bat Out of Hell', 'Dead Ringer for Love' and 'Two Out of Three Ain't Bad'.

Crowds will also be flocking to see the Magic of the Beatles at indigO2 at the O2 on Thursday, April 7.

The brand new production, which starts at 8pm, marks the 50th anniversary of the genesis of The Beatles – the most famous band in the world ever.

Be among the first to see this lavish, commemorative concert show, which promises an explosive live performance with original guitars and amps used by the band.

Dazzling costumes, superb dancers and authentic musician-ship will take you back to the sixties when they recreate all the band's biggest hits from their Mop Top roots to the psychedelia of Sgt Pepper.

For further information and tickets for both shows, which cost £26, or £28 for King's Row and £30 on the door, call the Box Office on 0844 844 0002 or visit www.theo2.co.uk/indigo2 or www.easytheatres.com

Ford leads the way in apprenticeships

By Martyn Dolton

FORD'S site in Dagenham has been named as a leading employer for apprenticeships.

The site was recognised by the National Apprenticeship Service following a visit by Mayor of London, Boris Johnson, last week.

Ford apprenticeship programmes are open to all age groups, including current unskilled employees, with more than 100 people currently in training.

Simon Waugh, National Apprenticeship Service chairman, said Ford had demonstrated its commitment to apprentices throughout the UK and was pleased with how the company was developing the scheme to benefit others.

Julie Bellinger, apprenticeship services manager at Ford, said: "I am delighted that our training programmes have been recognised by the National Apprenticeship Service."

"Ford courses run for four years and prepare people to undertake key roles within the company."

"In addition, they may also complete their programme with a foundation degree funded by Ford, with an opportunity to progress on to a degree in engineering."

Government funding has assisted the recent development of Ford's apprenticeship programme and has helped support the continuation of basic skills training at Ford.

Mr Johnson, and John Baron,

MP for Basildon and Billericay, visited Ford Dagenham engine plant and Ford's centre in Dunton, respectively to meet apprentices.

The four year programme consists of two years Classroom and Workshop based at the Centre for Engineering and manufacturing Excellence at Dagenham, followed by two years Located at one of the company's Product Development or Manufacturing facilities.

Irons chosen for Olympic Stadium

By Martyn Dolton

WEST Ham United have been chosen as the preferred bidders to take over the Olympic Stadium after the 2012 Games. Olympic Park Legacy Company (OPLC) executives chose the club's bid over a rival proposal from Tottenham Hotspur.

The go ahead must now be given by the Mayor of London and the Government.

The bid will be funded by £40million from Newham Council.

Sir Robin Wales, Mayor of Newham, was delighted by the announcement.

He said: "London won the right to host the Olympics by making a promise to leave a lasting legacy, not just for us and our children but for future generations."

"It will inspire people in Newham and beyond and we will make the stadium a magnet for visitors across Britain, Europe and the world, to view and participate in a wide range of sport and entertainment fixtures."

West Ham's bid included retaining the athletics track around the football pitch which was a key feature in winning the bid.

The vote from OPLC bosses was unanimous.

Karren Brady, vice-chairman of West Ham United, said: "We are proud to have been passed the Olympic torch and fully embrace the responsibility we have for keeping the flame alive."

"We have been working on this project for some time now and are just at the starting line of the race to make this a stadium that will really make the nation proud."

Housing minister to hold first time buyers summit

Grant Shapps, the UK housing minister, will this week call on leading members of the property industry to do more to assist aspiring homeowners in their efforts to get a first step on the housing ladder at a first time buyers' summit.

As the average age of first-time buyers rises to 37, the government wants to place greater pressure on mortgage lenders in particular in a bid to make more mortgage liquidity available.

Most would-be home purchasers are being denied an opportunity buy a property, particularly a new build home, due to the need to raise high deposits and stringent credit standards.

Shapps will meet with a range of industry leaders, including leading think-tanks, bankers and mortgage lenders, to discuss new ways to injecting fresh life into the housing market.

The latest figures from the Council of Mortgage Lenders showed that the number of first-time buyers plummeted by 42% year-on-year to 14,500 in December.

The volume of first-time buyers in December fell by 3% from November giving a total of 194,600 loans granted to first-time buyers in 2010, down 1% on 2009's 198,200, and considerably lower than the average of 600,000 first-time buyers who purchased a home a decade ago.

The summit will also be used as an opportunity to discuss the expansion of the shared-ownership affordable homes scheme.

South East London Affordable Homes Show

Housing Options will host the South East London Affordable Homes Show this Saturday, 19th February, in an attempt to help more people buy their first home. The event, which will promote over 500 affordable homes for sale, will be held in Greenwich at the Queen Mary Room, Old Royal Naval College, between 11am and 4pm.

The Affordable Homes Show, a free event, will bring together major affordable housing providers operating in London including L&Q, Affinity Sutton, Family Mosaic, Moat, In Place, Wandle and Southern Housing, all of which will offer affordable properties for sale.

Housing association L&Q will offer people the opportunity to view some of its affordable homes - via a free shuttle bus service - at nearby developments, The Artillery, housed within the old Royal Military Academy, and Greengate House.

To find out if you are eligible for an affordable home, log-on to www.whathouse.co.uk.

The website, dedicated to the new and affordable housing sector, has a comprehensive list of new and affordable homes for sale.

Thousands seek a new start overseas in London

The dream of a new life in Australia, Canada and New Zealand will soon become more of a reality for thousands of Britons in March.

The UK's biggest event for jobs and a new life abroad will be held at the Business Design Centre in Islington on the 5th & 6th March 2011. Two dedicated shows, Down Under Live and Canada Live both cater for a growing audience wanting to leave the UK behind in search of a new life abroad. Recent government statistics revealed that these three countries are the top destinations for people migrating from the UK, with over 17,000 people moving from the South East alone. In 2009, 472,000 people emigrated overseas from the UK.

For most, it is the promise of a higher quality of life, with enhanced job prospects that entices them to move. Australia's unemployment rate is half that of the West Midlands, and the Australian government is actively recruiting skilled workers to help with vital skill shortages. 42 year old Mark Hickford and his family moved from Broomfield in Essex to Adelaide in Australia, and says he has no regrets about leaving. "I'm not sorry I moved as I believe the quality of life has more potential than the UK, and the weather is better. " While he admits to missing friends and family, he is adamant that the lifestyle in Australia is better than she could have hoped for in the UK.

The key for a successful move overseas is to get independent, trusted advice and that is what visitors to Down Under Live & Canada Live can get from their day at the show. Staged in a friendly and helpful atmosphere, each event features over 6 hours of dedicated presentations on emigrating, with the aim of providing answers to the hundreds of questions potential migrants have.

Every aspect of the emigration process is covered, from shipping your goods to where the best schools are, so that visitors will leave with a plan for starting their new life. Hundreds of job opportunities will also be on display, proof of the continuing demand for skilled workers from the UK, and experts with long experience of helping people to emigrate will staff over 30 stands that visitors can browse during the day.

Moving to the other side of the world may well be a massive undertaking, but as Mark Hickford advises "Just do it. Whatever you think you've got to lose by not taking a risk will invariably still be there if it doesn't work out. We are here to stay!"

Down Under Live - the UK's biggest event for Australia & New Zealand and Canada Live, dedicated to all things Canada are at the Business Design Centre in Islington on the 5th & 6th March. Doors open on both days at 10am and tickets cost £10 each in advance for access to both shows.

We have 100 tickets to give away to readers of the newspaper. To claim yours, call 01179 323586 and quote the code LON01. But hurry; these will go fast!

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified line and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belongs to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.
